

January 19, 2023

New year, same goal and we are committed to success! We are very close to reaching our Kapiolani Children's Miracle Network $140,000 fundraising goal.

To honor the memory of Martha Smith, Hawaii Credit Unions for Kids embarked on a special fundraising initiative to benefit Kapiolani Medical Center for Women & Children. Martha was a cancer patient, and our goal is to raise $140,000 to purchase a breast ultrasound (US) machine for the hospital in her name.

Read more

Investing with Tight Liquidity and an Inverted Yield Curve

Even though higher rates are currently on the short end of the yield curve, there are reasons to consider locking in some longer maturities.

Read more

NCUA's recent Letter to Credit Unions outline 2023 Supervisory Priorities NCUA outlines supervisory priorities and other updates to the agency's examination program for 2023. The focus will be on areas posing the highest risk to credit union members, the credit union industry, and the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund.

Read more

For credit unions, this is an urgent call to action to rally around our mission to improve the financial well-being of those we serve – and those we seek to serve. We communicate and carry that mission in different ways, but it boils down to the idea that all credit unions are here to serve people and not profit.

Read more

Calendar of Events

View this email in your browser