HUGS Executive Director Amy Morton-Sogi and Development Director Alex Wereszczynskij stopped by the Hawaii Central FCU Main branch on King Street where they were presented with a check in the amount of $1,052.00. Last week, a team of ten staff volunteers cooked up some local favorites for co-workers in exchange for a fifteen-dollar donation. The team sold 51 plate lunches, and presented 100% of the proceeds to HUGS, yesterday afternoon.

Just like the temperatures, the summer movie season has reached the boiling point. Two of the year's most highly anticipated movies, "Barbie" and "Oppenheimer," both opened in theaters on July 21 and together grossed nearly a quarter of a billion dollars just their first weekend.

So why should credit unions care?
