2024 U.S. economic outlook and its impact on credit unions

Recent economic and market data tells us 2024 will bring slow but steady economic growth and possible interest rate reductions. The Fed will continue to battle inflation with a balanced approach to interest rates in hopes of staving off a recession and bringing inflation rates to an acceptable standard.

Callahan to highlight ways the industry fosters financially strong credit unions

By Aaron Passman, Editorial Director, Callahan & Associates

The credit union industry embraced uncertainty in 2023 and balanced high levels of member service with sound financial management. You'll see a focus on that from Callahan in 2024 as we highlight the variety of ways the industry fosters financially strong credit unions.

JUNIOR EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE

Are you a young professional who wants to impact the credit union industry? Have you wanted to learn how to get involved and make a difference for your members and credit union? Would you like to make personal connections with those who influence the industry?

The Junior Executive Development Initiative (JEDI) is targeted to young professionals (under 40 years of age) committed to making a difference and advancing the credit union industry. The program offers opportunities to participate in JEDI activities designed to engage up-and-coming professionals who want to make an impact – i.e. lunch discussions with selected speakers, scavenger hunt activities to build your network, sharing on social media platforms, commenting or providing testimony for advocacy, attending Chapter meetings, participating in community events, soliciting PAC contributions, and much more.

There is more! If you are selected for the JEDI program, you will be awarded fully-paid registration for two days at the HCUL Convention which includes attendance at educational sessions, access to the exhibit hall, meals and Friday evening event; fully-paid registration for two days at the HCUL Regulatory and Governmental Affairs Conference which includes attendance at educational sessions, access to exhibit area and meals. Finally a 50% discount to attend the Convention and Conference in the year following the scholarship, if willing to mentor the incoming JEDI scholars by participating in group activities and selected as the Chapter representative.

Want to learn more? Here are the program details and application. Deadline to submit application will be March 1, 2024 to eugene.davis@hcul.org.

Life Smarts is brought to Hawaii by the State's DCCA Office of the Securities Commission in partnership with the Hawaii Credit Union League as a supported Family Involvement Committee Initiative. For years Hawaii credit unions have generously responded to DCCA's request for prize donations. Your support is once again requested.
