

Hawaii Credit Union League

April 13, 2023

Understanding the importance of advocacy, your League arranged an in-person meeting with U.S. Congressman Ed Case on Monday, April 10 at the HCUL Education Center. The conversation stressed the importance of maintaining interchange rules.

Credit unions often feel squeezed between two conflicting goals. On one hand, maintaining safe levels of liquidity is important for any financial institution. Safety leads to longevity and prudence, hallmarks of a credit union that plans to be around for some time. On the other hand, growth should also be sought and prioritized. This can be done strategically, if safety is not forgotten along the way.
