It will address how the reports should be used to ensure directors are receiving the necessary details to stay informed of issues impacting your institution and make effective risk-based decisions.

WEBINAR DETAILS

Ultimate responsibility for your institution's risk-management program lies with your board of directors. Examiners will evaluate the overall effectiveness of management and the board by analyzing:

- Board and senior management oversight
- Policies, procedures, and limits
- Risk monitoring and management information systems
- Internal controls

WEBINAR DETAILS

This thorough training will address proper procedure, compliance, and minute-taking.

The board secretary's dynamic role is critical. It involves and affects administration of corporate governance, director liability, communication with directors and management, oversight of policy/procedure reviews, obtaining and maintaining annual documentation, compliance issues, and more.

This session will provide the information and tools needed to be a successful board secretary. It will review responsibilities and provide best practices to enhance administration of corporate governance, including establishing an agenda, delivering the board package, scribing contemporaneous meeting notes, and documenting details in the official minutes. It will also review best practices for documenting "healthy debate" and discussion that may occur during a board meeting. Join us to receive guidance and tips for becoming more effective and efficient and get tools to facilitate success.
